Aviation Safety Bulletin

ASB No: 96-037/O

Oct 15, 2007

Subject :

Operator and flight crew shall strictly comply with the rule of 『Fixed wing aircraft refueling when passengers are embarking or disembarking』 in Aircraft Flight Operations Regulation.

Background :

A national airline, without completing regulatory requirement, started boarding passengers while processing refueling operation at the same time, causing violation.

Recommendation :

Operator and flight crew shall comply with the rule of 『Fixed wing aircraft refueling when passengers are embarking or disembarking』 in article 68 of 「Aircraft Flight Operations Regulation」. The aircraft in ground operation should be properly attended by qualified personnel ready to initiate and direct an evacuation of the aircraft. And Two-way communication shall be maintained between the ground crew supervising the refueling and the qualified personnel on board the aircraft.
