

List of Suspicious Articles Hazardous to Flight safety

For security reason, the following articles are only permitted in checked baggage.

category	statement
Knives	Including but not limited to: Fruit knives, scissors, kitchen knives, machetes, sickles, box cutters, steak knives, clasp knives, scalpels, Swiss army knives and objects with cutting function. Except for plastic or round bladed scissors and round bladed butter knives.
Sharp Objects	Including but not limited to: Arrows, large fishhooks, metal nails over 5 cm, darts, metal yarn needles, nail guns, medical hypodermic needles ^{note1} and objects with puncture function.
Bars, Tools & Farming Utensils	Including but not limited to: Sticks, hoes, hammers, axes, screwdrivers, metal rakes, awls, saws, chisels, ice chisels, iron chains, metal rulers which is thicker than 0.5 mm, tripods (diameter more than 1 cm and longer than 60cm after stowing within legs), metal vernire calipers and objects with rap or puncture functions.
Guns, Firearms & Martial Arts	Including but not limited to: Toy guns made of various materials, and the weapons which permitted for transport by the authorities under Controlling Guns, Ammunition and Knives Act such as firearms, sword, batons, handcuffs, stun guns and electroshock weapons ^{note2} .
Sporting Goods	Including but not limited to: Baseball bats, golf clubs, hockey sticks, cricket bats, billiard cue, skateboards, paddles for canoe or kayak, ice hockey sticks, fishing rods, sport crossbows, ornamental swords, nunchakus, guard sticks, ice skates and objects which may be used as assault weapons.
Liquids, Gels or Aerosols (LAGs)	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Passengers travelling on international flights must follow the quantity limits for liquids, aerosols and gels (LAGs) products in carry-on baggage or on one's person. All LAGs products must be carried in containers with a capacity not greater than 100 ml each. Containers with LAGs products must be placed in a transparent and re-sealable plastic bag of a maximum capacity not exceeding 1 liter (about 20*20cm) and all the LAGs products in plastic bag must be sealable fully and only one bag is allowed for each passenger. Passengers shall put the LAGs products, which are not complied with the former regulation, into the checked baggage. 2. Passengers carrying LAGs products on one's person or as carry-on baggage for the reason such as baby milk/foods, medications, diabetic or other medical requirements, which are needed during the journey but not complied with the former regulation, shall apply for the permission from Aviation Police at the passenger screening check point.
Others	Other items which may be abused cause flight safety or security issue.

Note1: If there is any medical conditions which require the use of medical hypodermic needle during the journey, please apply for the permission from the Aviation Police at the passenger screening check point.

Note2: Electroshock weapons (e.g. Tasers) containing dangerous goods such as explosives, compressed gases, lithium batteries, etc. are forbidden in carry-on baggage or checked baggage or on the person.

Note3: The Chinese version of the List based on the Civil Aviation Act Article 43-1 is the primary regulatory requirements. The English version is only for reference.